

Read To Me

Literacy Events

Reading to your child for 30 minutes daily from birth to 5 gives your child 900 hours of brain food.

Join us each month for great activities for you and your child.
All events are free and open to the public.

-  October 17 – Read to Me! Kick off: 1:00–3:00pm at Austin Public Library
-  October 31 - Halloween Carnival: 1:00-3:00pm at AmericInn in Austin
-  November 18 – Discovery Childcare Center, Bedtime Stories: 6:30pm at Discovery Center
-  December 10 – Community Learning Center, Santa’s Workshop: 6:00–7:30pm at CLC
-  January 16 – Wee Learning , Love to Read: 10:00–12:00am at Wee Learning Center
-  February 10 – YMCA & Little Shamrocks, Clifford Loves to Read: 3:30-4:30pm at APL
-  March 6 – Congregational and Head Start, Sledding and Stories: 9:00- 10:30am at Congregational Church (weather permitting). We’ll have alternate indoor activities if the weather doesn’t cooperate
-  April – Week of the Young Child, April 10th at Oak Park Mall. More details to come
-  May 19– Apple Lane Child Care, Tales by Terry: 6:15-7:00pm at Corcoran Center
-  June – Born Learning Trail Unveiling: TBD
-  July – Summer Reading Program: Details TBD

Photo taken and donated by The Studio of Fine Photography

AUSTIN EARLY CHILDHOOD

INITIATIVE
a campaign for our youngest children
Minnesota Initiative Foundations

United Way of Mower County

