

Every dollar
matters.

So does every person.

United Way funds programs that not only help our neighbors in times of crises, but also in everyday life and activities. Did you know that United Way funded partners reported serving 18,320 individuals in 2023? That's more than half of the Mower County population!